I am filing this grievance in order to complain about the lack of programming since March of 2020 and which continues to this day. Specifically, I am seeking to exhaust my administrative remedies against the CDCR as well as the State of California, and Governor Newsom himself for failing to adequately address the lack of programming in CDCR facilities even though he is acutely aware of the deficiencies in the operation of the CDCR. In order to fully state the nature of my complaint, I must state unequivocally that the lack of programming is directly proportional to the lack of staff as explained to me in my many previous complaint denials.
